Sample Questions

1. An email header is used in digital forensics because:
   A. it indicates the path taken by the email
   B. it contains the source and destination IP addresses
   C. it indicates servers that were hit along the way
   D. the date stamps of sender and receivers are logged
   E. all of the above are true

2. Specular highlights are important:
   A. in order to speculate the distance from the eye to the mid-forehead
   B. because the shape, color and location of these highlights give us info about the lighting
   C. to determine the changes in shade of eye and hair color in a picture
   D. because they indicate the resolution and composition of the highlights in the picture
   E. all of the above are true