

Stop by the Chryst Writing Center for free walk-in and online peer tutoring services!

The Chryst Writing Center, located in 109B Chryst Hall, provides assistance and peer tutoring for any written assignment. All tutors have some background in language arts and are able to provide a wide-range of academic expertise to the students they assist.

The center's philosophy focuses on guiding each student to problems and errors in their paper so the author is able to correct their own work. Tutors do not rewrite papers for students.

Take advantage of the Chryst Writing Center's online paper review system, and get all the help you need as you move into finals!
