

Call for Research Mentors!

The President's Commission on Cultural Diversity & Inclusion (PCCDI)

Join our in our Research & Mentoring Initiative (RMI). RMI is a unique opportunity for faculty, staff and administration to serve as research mentors. We established RMI to support racial or ethnic or first generation undergraduate students engaged in a collaborative relationship for a five-week summer research project fostering self-advocacy and professional development.

Eligibility

- Applicants for research mentors must be a faculty, staff or administrator of Millersville University.
- Attend Fall orientation session.
- Meet with the prospective student researcher(s) to complete a research proposal application prior to the application deadline.
- Be in residence during Summer III semester.
