

Entrepreneurial Innovation & Leadership Center Presents: Fireside chats!

Join the ELC and Easton Braun, a local entrepreneur, to discuss how he grew his company with little money, into a multi-million dollar business. He will discuss insider information you won't hear about in your classes. His company, E. Braun Farmtables, re-purposes barnwood from the 1800's and turns it into beautifully crafted furniture that is sold all over the world. Hear about the challenges he had to overcome, and what he did to grow his successful business.

Wednesday, November 8th at 7:00pm At the Entrepreneurial Innovation & Leadership Center
Adams House (Red House across from the Library)
Enjoy refreshments sponsored by SAXBYS
