

READING GROUPS' SCHEDULE

Select a group to join based upon your interest in the discussion theme listed in quotes & your availability. Common hour is held 12:05-1:10 pm. Other Questions? Contact Michele Santamaria, msantamaria@millersville.edu .

"Family Loyalties," led by Dr. Dan O'Neill

10/16 & 10/23, 5-6 pm, Room 117, Library

"Communicating across Difference," led by Jan Bechtel

10/17 & 11/17, 7-9 pm, SMC 203

"Educator Responsibility," led by Dr. Leslie Gates & Tee Aviles

10/24 & 11/10, common hour, Room 104B, Library

"American Identity," led by Professor Michele Santamaria

10/24 & 10/31, Room 104 B, 11 am on 10/24, Common Hour on 10/31, Library

"Digital Technologies," led by Dr. Nicole Pfannenstiel

10/26 & 11/2, Common Hour, Room 104B, Library

Find out why students convinced us to pick "All American Boys" as our common read.

Join a One Book,
One Campus
Reading Group.

What does it mean to join a reading group?

Each reading group will meet twice during the fall 2017 semester. While the reading groups have a thematic focus, we encourage each member of a reading group to get what they need out of the discussion. Groups will focus on planning during their first meeting.

Participants are welcome to try out more than one reading group. Our hope is that these smaller conversations will get the rest of the campus talking about "All American Boys."