

Stand Up and Fight for Your Land

For more than a decade, the Community Environmental Legal Defense Fund has helped people like you and your neighbors to fight for their rights.

The Community Environmental Legal Defense Fund is not a typical environmental organization. We assist communities to develop first-in-the-nation, groundbreaking laws to protect rights – including worker, environmental, and democratic rights.

Presented by:

Chad Nicholson

Featuring:

Malinda Clatterbuck

Board member of the Pennsylvania Community Rights Network and a founding board member of Lancaster Against Pipelines

Mr. Nicholson will demonstrate how to organize at the grassroots level and how to empower citizens to STAND UP AND FIGHT for THEIR LAND!

Mr. Nicholson will offer concrete and effective examples on how to fight against decisions made by those in power, that affect your land and property.
