

WE THE PEOPLE: BARRIO ALEGRIA - EL CIRCO DEL BARRIO!

FRIDAY, MARCH 2, 2018 | 7 P.M.

STEINMAN HALL | THE WARE CENTER

Tickets: FREE!

WE THE PEOPLE is the Ware Center's First Friday program in which local artists representing the great mosaic of our community offer presentations of their work in performance genres as diverse as our nation. This program will showcase dance choreographies, poetry, and magic numbers that reflect the intra-neighbor interactions in the city of Reading. These pieces have resulted in the project's participants' connection to their heritage, and an appreciation of the nuances and difficulties of the immigrant experience in the city of Reading.

In the Regitz Gallery, join artist Kerry Sacco for the opening reception of her exhibit "A Fleeting Glimpse" from 6 – 8 p.m. The focus of her current work is the exploration of color and form in multicolored, hand-pulled lithographs and realistic, light-filled oil paintings.

SHH! WE HAVE A PLAN

SUNDAY, MARCH 4, 2018 | 3 P.M.

STEINMAN HALL | THE WARE CENTER

Tickets: $10 adults and seniors, $5 students

Returning from Northern Ireland, Cahoots presents a nonverbal tale featuring magic, music, and puppetry. Follow the delightful and surprising journey of a family adventuring through the woods, and their obsession with capturing a beautiful bird they've encountered perched high in a tree. Starting one hour before the performance, children are welcome to participate in creative, hands-on activities. Running time: 45 minutes. Suitable for ages 3+.

This show will provide ASL Interpretation and is Sensory-Friendly. Please notify the box office your needs you or your guests may have at 717-871-7600.
