

Good morning. A day late, but here are the State System News Highlights for the week. This summary of news articles related to the State System is distributed each Wednesday. To view the individual articles, click on the headline. You also may view past articles and real-time news highlights from Twitter at www.passhe.edu/news.

SU senior Bradley Foreman honored for academic excellence

Thursday, April 12, 2018

Shippensburg University senior Bradley Foreman is the 2018 winner of the Syed R. Ali-Zaidi Award for Academic Excellence from Pennsylvania's State System of Higher Education. Foreman, a physics major with minors in biology, chemistry, mathematics, French, Spanish and military science, received a $1,000 cash prize for winning the award. The Board of Governors recognized his accomplishments at a recent meeting. He expects to graduate in May and has a current overall GPA of 3.8, and has made the Dean's List every semester since his freshman year.

shipNC.com

---

Bloomsburg University Makes Child's Wish Come True

Wednesday, April 11, 2018

If you could have one wish come true, what would it be? A little girl from Bloomsburg wants to go to Hawaii to meet her favorite Disney princess, Moana. Rose Adams of Bloomsburg may look like your average kindergarten student. But this six-year-old has spent a lot of time in the hospital, getting treatment for cancer.

By Nikki Krize, ABC 16-WNEP

---

MU Concert Choir members and alumni to perform at Carnegie Hall

Monday, April 9, 2018

Eighty Mansfield University singers from the current Concert Choir joined former alumni choir members will perform in a professional Broadway show under the direction of Rob Fisher in Carnegie Hall at 7 p.m. April 18.

The (Williamsport) Sun-Gazette

---

Raising Sexual Assault Awareness Through Art

Monday, April 9, 2018

Clothing of all colors, sizes, and types hangs on the second floor of the University Center on the campus of East Stroudsburg University. Each display has a story told by a sexual assault survivor. "I am actually really emotional. This is my first time seeing it. It's really descriptive and all the of the clothes look in a sense untouched," said Wendell Smallwood, ESU freshman. The art exhibit is called "What Were You Wearing?" and was designed to remove blame that is placed on a victim of sexual assault when he or she is asked this question.

ABC 16-WNEP

---

Cal U gets U.S. Department of Education grant for students' child care

Tuesday, March 27, 2018

California University of Pennsylvania received a four-year grant from the U.S. Department of Education to help low-income students with child care. The grant, known as Child Care Access Means Parents in School, will total more than $389,000 to the university, which gets about a dozen requests each year about child care assistance from students who are parents.

By Stacey Federoff, Pittsburgh Business Times

---

Millersville University's next president is an academic leader, botanist and Ghanaian king

Saturday, April 7, 2018

Daniel Wubah, tapped Thursday to be Millersville University's next president, draws on a wealth of leadership experiences, including that of tribal king in Ghana, land of his birth. And while he's held academic leadership posts for 18 years, Wubah, 57, takes pride in his early days as a botanist researching the role of fungi in the stomachs of cows.

By Jeff Hawkes, Lancaster Newspapers

---

Welcome, LHU's 15th President

Thursday, April 12, 2018

"We'll get some good things done," declared Lock Haven University's incoming president, Robert M. Pignatello, as he shook hands with Jim Gregory, local businessman and university trustee. Pignatello was greeted by LHU students, staff members and others at an outdoor reception Wednesday morning, following an official welcoming program in Price Performance Center.

By Wendy Stiver, The (Lock Haven) Express

---

Hannan named interim president of Edinboro University

Thursday, April 5, 2018

The top administrator at Edinboro University of Pennsylvania has a new title. Michael Hannan has been named interim president of the university. He had been acting president of the university since March 30.

Erie Times-News

---

The Clothesline Project - Helping to Give Victims a Voice

Tuesday, April 3, 2018

April is sexual assault awareness month- and on the campus of Bloomsburg University a unique project is helping to give victims a voice.

PA Homepage

---

Millersville University's next president comes from Washington and Lee University

Thursday, April 5, 2018

The special adviser to the president of Virginia's Washington and Lee University has been chosen to be the next leader of Millersville University. The State System of Higher Education board on Thursday named Daniel Wubah, 57, to serve as the next president of the 8,000-student Lancaster County campus, starting on July 1.

By Jan Murphy, The (Harrisburg) Patriot-News

---

PSSHE board of governors unanimously selects Millersville University's next president

Thursday, April 5, 2018

The Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education board of governors today unanimously selected Daniel Wubah, a former provost and senior adviser to the president of Washington and Lee University, as Millersville University's next president.

By Alex Geli, Lancaster Newspapers