

Byron Hurt Faculty/Staff Breakout Session

The Center for Student Involvement & Leadership (CSIL) and the Division of Student Affairs & Enrollment Management (SAEM) invite you to join Millersville in welcoming Byron Hurt to campus on Monday, April 9th, 2018 at 7:00PM in the Reighard Multipurpose Room, Student Memorial Center. Byron, an award-winning documentary filmmaker, published writer, and anti-sexist activist will kick off Greek Week at MU with a keynote presentation entitled Locker Room Talk or Toxic Masculinity? that will challenge his audience to question, reimagine, and redefine manhood and gender roles in today's society.

In addition to the keynote presentation, CSIL and SAEM will host an informal breakout session with Byron for a limited number of faculty, staff, and administrators (schedule outlined below).

Please RSVP to the Faculty/Staff Breakout Session by emailing csil@millersville.edu by 4:30PM, Friday, April 6th, 2018 to reserve your space. Please note there is limited availability at the breakout and a waiting list will be created once spaces have been filled. If you plan on attending the keynote only, there is no need to RSVP.

Please contact the Center for Student Involvement and Leadership with questions at csil@millersville.edu, or 717-871-7057.
