

ART WALK WEEKEND: "BEYOND THE END"

FRIDAY, MAY 4, 2018 | 5:30 P.M.
REGITZ GALLERY | THE WARE CENTER
Tickets: FREE!

The Ware Center will be participating in Lancaster City's Art Walk Weekend with an exhibit by Evan Kitson and Matt Allyn Chapman. The exhibit will explore the effects of how an extended working process changes the landscape of their artwork. Going beyond their usual inclination of "completion", their pieces develop a deeper history that reveals itself on its surface. This exhibit runs until May 25.

WE THE PEOPLE FIRST FRIDAY

ACTS OF WELCOME: ART AND STORIES OF LANCASTER REFUGEES

FRIDAY, MAY 4, 2018 | 6- 8:30 P.M.
STEINMAN HALL | THE WARE CENTER
Tickets: FREE!

This First Friday events begins with an Audience Perspectives Lecture at 6:15 p.m. in Steinman Hall, titled, "Where is Everyone Going? The 21st Century's Global Migration Crisis" by Dr. Kristin Bookmiller of Millersville University. At 7:00 p.m. hear live music by a local group opening for "For We Were Strangers in the Land". Co-sponsored by Church World Service (CWS) and Congregation Shaarai Shomayim, this Readers Theater presentation of a play by local playwright Sandy Asher, tells the stories of refugees and immigrants in Lancaster County. For the entire evening, enjoy the photo exhibit, "Where Hope Finds Home: Recognizing the Refugees of Lancaster, PA" by photographer Kristin V. Rehder.
