

The Lancaster County Conservation District is looking to hire at least one intern for summer 2013. Candidates should have an interest in developing problem solving, communication, and technical skills relating to conservation of our natural resources. Job shadowing, project development, and learning the overall dynamics of the Lancaster County Conservation District will be part of the job. Projects will be assigned to the individual based on current needs of the conservation district and intern interests.

This will be a 10 week, full-time position starting in June. Pay is $9.25 an hour. Applicants need to apply by March 15 using the Internship Application form on the Lancaster County Conservation District website: www.lancasterconservation.org.

Lancaster County Conservation District is an Equal Opportunity Employer.
