

Steps	Reading Strategies	Tuesday Note what works for you while reading for Corkery or Garcia's classes	Tuesday -Wednesday Formulate a reading plan today and implement before Thursday	Thursday Results of your reading practice and reflection
Before you read	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Consider environment, time, place, distractions. 2. Plan your reading by multiplying the number of pages by 5 minutes
Survey	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Go to the questions at the end 2. Read the final summary of the chapter 3. Read the abstract and discussion part of the article 4. Look at the organizational structure of the chapter/article (e.g., subheadings, pictures)
Pose questions	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Turn each chapter/article heading into a question 2. Use who, what, when, how, compare, describe, explain, list when formulating questions 3. Write questions in the margins or in your notebook
Actively read	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Find answers to your questions 2. Write notes, in your own words, under your questions, read for big ideas 3. Read for big ideas and key details 4. Interact with your text, ask further questions and relate it to your life and your experiences
Recall	Recite answers to your questions aloud
Review	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Mentally visualize main points 2. Draw a concept map of the main points 3. Study the chapter review questions 4. Reflect on what you learned 5. Teach what you have learned to someone else
Additional tips	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Use a dictionary app or a dictionary 2. Review the reading with another classmate to test your comprehension 3. 4.

