

In honor of April being Sexual Assault Awareness Month, Karlie's Angels will be hosting the following events in order to raise awareness, educate the campus, and allow the community to show their support for survivors of sexual violence.

Wednesday, April 5th at 7pm: Take Back the Night
SMC Promenade (Rain location: SMC Robert L. Slabinski Atrium)

Break the silence and end the violence during Take Back the Night, an empowering international rally with the purpose of unifying communities to raise awareness in ending sexual assault, domestic violence, dating violence, sexual abuse and all other forms of sexual violence. All students and community members are welcome to come and show support. The event will include an open mic for survivors to share their stories, poetry, and live music.

Thursday, April 6th at 7pm: Sofie Karasek Speaking Engagement
Myers Auditorium in McComsey Hall

Sofie Karask is an anti-sexual violence activist, co-founder of the advocacy group End Rape on Campus, and a subject in the documentary "The Hunting Ground." She will be presenting on Title IX as well as more recent political developments around sexual violence. There will be a panel discussion following her speaking engagement relating to how we can mobilize our campus in ending sexual violence.

Tuesday, April 11th at 7pm: "The Hunting Ground" Documentary
SMC Reighard Multi-Purpose Room

This documentary is a film about the incidence of sexual assault on college campuses in the United States and what its creators say is a failure of college administrations to deal with it adequately. Millersville's Title IX coordinator, Bob Wood, will provide a brief presentation following the documentary.
