

WHERE IS MY PACKAGE?

As we approach the end of the semester many students leave campus without picking up their packages either at their residence hall or the Boyer mailroom.

We cannot forward packages to your home because of USPS, UPS and FedEx rules and regulations. The packages must be returned to the sender.

If you order an item in the next few weeks, please have it sent to your home or apartment not to your campus address.