

A message from John M. Anderson, President:

It is with sadness and regret that I share with you that Dr. Susan Northwall, former MU physician, has passed away.

Susan was a valued member of the University community and a credit to her profession. She will be missed and we extend our sympathy to the Northwall family.

We will share more details as they become known.