

Scavenger Hunt this week May 8-12

Francine G. McNairy Library and Learning Forum

Take a break while you're in the library this week and take part in the Scavenger Hunt; clues will be on the University's Twitter and Snapchat accounts. You'll hunt for a certificate which you turn in at the Library Information Desk for fabulous prizes (gift certificates to the Book Store, Millersville water bottles, etc.)! Only one prize per person please.
