

State System News Highlights

Kutztown School Board approves professional development partnership with KU

Friday, May 5, 2017

The Kutztown Area School District is forming a professional development school partnership agreement with the Wyomissing Area School District, Brandywine Heights School District and Twin Valley School District, along with the education program at Kutztown University. The partnership was approved at the Kutztown School Board workshop meeting held May 1.

By Laura E. Quain, Berk-Mont News

---

Cal U's GACO shows area small businesses how to earn government contracts

Saturday, May 6, 2017

For the past 32 years, the Government Agency Coordination Office at California University of Pennsylvania has helped thousands of small businesses in a five-county region of Southwestern Pennsylvania become registered to do business with local, state and federal governments.

By Michale Bradwell, The (Washington, Pa.) Observer-Reporter

---

ESU student develops new audio earplugs

Monday, May 8, 2017

East Stroudsburg University master's degree candidate Blaise Delfino earned first place in the collegiate sector of the TecBRIDGE Business Plan Competition with the design of ear-pugs that allows the wearer to adjust noise levels without taking the plug out of the ear.

By Howard Frank, The Pocono Record

---

ESU Students Donate Clothing to Veterans Clinics

Friday, May 5, 2017

All over the campus of East Stroudsburg University, students can be seen packing up boxes and moving out of their dorms for the semester. A few special boxes were dropped off at the University Veteran Office. Each is filled with items that will be donated to area veteran clinics.

WNEP 16

---

Late Allentown teacher leaves largest gift ever to Kutztown University Foundation

Friday, May 5, 2017

A gift from the estate of an Allentown educator will go toward helping Kutztown University students become teachers. The $2.4 million donation—the largest in the Kutztown University Foundation's history — will go primarily to an endowed scholarship for full-time students majoring in elementary or secondary education.

By Michelle Merlin, The (Allentown) Morning Call

---

Articles from subscription only sites

Trustees recommend Whitney contract extension

The Clarion University Council of Trustees voted to recommend to the chancellor of the State System of Higher Education that President Karen Whitney's contract be extended to 2020.... - Oil City Derrick

Kutztown University, the last bastion of library science program and fraternity_-

Kutztown University has the distinction of being one of the last institutions in the country to offer an undergraduate program for certified school or public ... Reading Eagle

