On Monday, June 19, 2017, Millersville University, in conjunction with the Campaign for Fair Funding, will host a community forum on the importance of an increased investment in basic education funding for the 2017-18 school year. The forum will run from 6:30 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

A panel of local school leaders will talk about the challenges to developing a budget and the impact those challenges create on local classrooms. They will then field questions on school finances and budgets.

The panel will provide insight to school district budgeting decisions, including challenges of budget timelines, uncertainty of state funding, impact on local taxes, mandated expenses, and the impact on programs and classroom instruction.

The forum is open to the entire Lancaster County community. It is an opportunity for the community to hear and ask questions about state funding, and school budgets, as well as the impact of funding on the future of public education.
