

Documentary Viewing: Mimi and Dona

WHO: The Special Kids Network in partnership with PA Elks Major Projects, Inc.
WHAT: PBS documentary and talkback session
WHERE: Myers Auditorium, McComsey Hall
WHEN: Tuesday, September 17th at 7 p.m.

The documentary illustrates the social issues associated with appropriate housing and support for individuals with intellectual disabilities, while fostering a greater respect and compassion for families and caregivers.

Dr. Ojoma Edeh Herr and other representatives from the Special Kids Network will be on hand after the documentary for questions and to begin a dialogue about the issues raised in the film.

To view a trailer from the film, click here: <http://www.newday.com/film/mimi-and-dona>

For more information, contact Dr. Edeh Herr at 717-871-4775

In conjunction with College of Education and Human Services' series

