Re: UPDATED Office Depot

Millersville currently utilizes Office Max for the purchase of office supplies. Office Max and Office Depot have merged and have changed their ordering system.

As of Monday, October 6, 2017, the Office Depot platform will be in effect. Initially, employees will log in as usual to Office Max Workplace at <https://www.officemaxworkplace.com/>, then employees will be redirected to the Office Depot site where employees will enter their full MU email (example: joseph.smith@millersville.edu) with the temporary password: Welcome1. Please be sure to bookmark the new Office Depot site for future reference.

Employees will need to update their account information on the new Office Depot platform site. Changes to delivery addresses will need to be made by the purchasing office and requests can be sent to the purchasing email address: purchasing@millersville.edu
