

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN LEARNING TO FACILITATE INTER-GROUP DIALOGUES?

This two day training is available for faculty, staff, and administrators on January 20 and 21, 2018. The training will occur from 9 am – 4:30 pm with lunch and breaks provided. The training is limited to 15 people.

The objective of the training is to provide faculty, staff, and administrators the skills necessary to facilitate discussions between groups from different backgrounds. The training is oriented from a social justice perspective and will be facilitated by Drs. Karen Rice and Leonora Foels as well as Ms. Jasmine Whitlow. The training follows the Michigan Model of inter-group dialogue. For more information on this model, see <https://igr.umich.edu>

If you have questions, please contact Dr. Kimberly Mahaffy at 717-871-4473 or by email at kmahaffy@millersville.edu
