INTENDED LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Understand marginalization and its impact on individual outcomes and programmatic methods.
- Create criteria that develops and safeguards Inclusive
 Postsecondary education as the foundation for employment, independent living, and lifelong interdependence.
- Apply the use of "typical pathways" as the foundation for outcome driven individual plans.
- Analyze the essential role of families as a sustainable source of support.
- Create programmatic structures and policies which embed student voice and control into individual pathways.
- Understand how typical higher education pathways support meaningful employment as a safeguard against lifelong marginalization.

Join the discussion! All perspectives are essential, welcome and invited to learn and affect change.
