

Honor Women's History Month by joining the Latino Celebration Committee for a free screening of "Ovarian Psychos" on Tuesday, March 6, 2018 from 6:30 – 8 pm in McComsey 260 (Myers Auditorium).

Discussion led by Dr. Kimberly Mahaffy, Director of Latina/o Studies, Professor of Sociology, and Coordinator of the Office of Diversity and Social Justice.

OVARIAN PSYCOS

Riding at night through streets deemed dangerous in Eastside Los Angeles, the Ovarian Psychos use their bicycles to confront the violence in their lives. At the helm of the crew is founder Xela de la X, a single mother and poet M.C. dedicated to recruiting an unapologetic, misfit crew of women of color. The film intimately chronicles Xela as she struggles to strike a balance between her activism and nine year old daughter Yoli; street artist Andi who is estranged from her family and journeys to become a leader within the crew; and bright eyed recruit Evie, who despite poverty, and the concerns of her protective Salvadoran mother, discovers a newfound confidence.
