SIN is a modern morality play centering around “Avery Bly on High”, a helicopter traffic reporter who is trying to keep herself above life’s messiness. In the sky, life is perfect, but on the ground she is surrounded by people who are so much less than perfect. Her soon-to-be-ex-husband is a charming alcoholic, her roommate is a glutton, she’s trapped daily on a helicopter with an envious co-worker and her blind dates are disasters. It takes her dying brother to make her see that pride is the deadliest of sins, and it takes an Act of God to bring her back down to earth.
