

Board of Governors to meet to consider selection of next chancellor

Harrisburg Education will meet by conference call at noon, Monday, May 21, to consider the an eight-member search committee co-chaired by Board of Governors Chairwoman Cynthia D. Shapira and Board Vice Chair Harold C. Shields.

The committee received input from more than 350 students, faculty, staff, alumni and other stakeholders during the nearly seven-month search process and conducted several rounds of interviews. The last round of interviews involved the full Board as well as representatives of the various stakeholder groups.

bottom review of the State System and its 14 universities and intended to have a positive effect on students, to enhance the efficiency and effectiveness of the System and to

Following the completion of that review last year, the Board adopted three priorities to transforming the leadership and governance structure.

The chancellor search committee also included Board Vice Chair David M. Maser; Board members Thomas S. Muller and Samuel H. Smith; Ryan Long, president of the Student Government Association at West Chester University of Pennsylvania; Laura Delbrugge, a faculty member and chair of the Foreign Language Department at Indiana University of Pennsylvania; and Donna Wilson, interim president of Lock Haven University of Pennsylvania.

The Board conference call will originate from the Dixon University Center, 2986 N. Second St., Harrisburg. The public is invited to attend. The meeting also will be streamed live at www.passhe.edu. For more information, please contact Kenn Marshall at (717) 720-4054 or kmarshall@passhe.edu.

Kenn Marshall | Media Relations Manager
Pennsy Office of the Chancellor