

Good morning. Here are the State System News Highlights for August 29, 2018. This summary of news articles related to the State System universities is distributed weekly.

- To view the individual articles, click on the headlines below.
- To view past articles and real-time news highlights from Twitter, go to” www.passhe.edu/news.
- For regular updates on the State System Redesign, visit the website at: <http://systemredesign.passhe.edu/>

'Like New Year's Day': Millersville University holds move-in day for incoming freshmen

Friday, August 24, 2018

Moms worry. It's what they do. And Heather Fry is no exception. The Wyomissing mother of two said she's anxious about how her daughter, Haley, an incoming freshman at Millersville University, will fare on her own. She wants to make sure her daughter's safe on campus, and that her nutritional intake doesn't take a nosedive.

By Alex Geli, Lancaster Online

Edinboro University welcomes students back to campus

Saturday, August 25, 2018

Edinboro University of Pennsylvania interim President Michael Hannan was in a university parking lot Friday welcoming freshmen and their families and directing them to residence halls. About 4,900 students are expected on campus this fall in a metamorphosis year for the university.

By Valerie Myers, The Erie Times-News

'Move-In' Day For 1,500 SRU Students

Thursday, August 23, 2018

It's 'Move In Day' for new students at Slippery Rock University in Butler County.

ButlerRadio.com

LHU president addresses campus community

Tuesday, August 28, 2018

Lock Haven University President, Robert Pignatello, welcomed faculty and staff to the beginning of another academic year during his opening address last Thursday in Price Auditorium. "The excitement is palpable," the president said, noting that LHU's campus is abuzz with the arrival of a new class of students and, in his words, "a renewed sense of purpose."

The (Lock Haven) Express

Millersville University students return to class, experience new changes on campus

Monday, August 27, 2018

Summer vacation is over for students at Millersville University where they are attending the first day of classes today. In addition to adjusting to their new class load, students will also see some new changes on campus and in their dorms.

Fox 43

Mansfield University receives grant for new environmental program

Monday, August 27, 2018

Mansfield University accepted a grant through the PepsiCo Recycling Zero Impact Fund to implement an environmental sustainability program on campus. This award will initiate a single-stream recycling system and action plan to become a zero-waste campus by 2025.
The (Williamsport) Sun-Gazette

ESU Unveils New Virtual Anatomy Table

Thursday, August 23, 2018

East Stroudsburg University unveiled a new piece of technology Thursday that will help health science students get a virtual 3D look at the human body. Health Science professors were students for the day at ESU. The group is learning how to use a new piece of technology that will help with health courses this fall.

By Carmella Mataloni, WNEP-ABC16

From subscription only sites

(articles might open, depending on the number of times you have recently viewed the site):

Kutztown University budget balanced, enrollment slide might be reversed

Kutztown University has a balanced budget for the first time in eight years, Dr. Kenneth S. Hawkinson reported in his annual State of the University report to staff and faculty Friday morning in Schaeffer Auditorium. Under mandate from the Middle States Commission on Higher Education to... - Reading Eagle

SRU receives Freedom Award for vet support

Slippery Rock University students send care packages and cards to assistant professor Gary Clark when he is deployed as a member of the Army Reserves... - Butler Eagle