

This Week in the Arts

BREAK THE CHAIN

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, 2018 | 7 P.M. | THE WARE CENTER

Tickets: $7, $5 Student

Break the Chain is a documentary that captures the story of Debbie and Kwami, two survivors of child sex and labor trafficking, to provide a startling look at how this overly sensationalized issue is, in reality, hiding in plain sight. Through the story of these survivors and nearly 20 interviews with those actively working to raise awareness and create creative solutions to combat this global problem, this film helps viewers learn how to activate change by choosing how to consume information and what to support.

Panel Discussion- 6:15 P.M. The evening will begin with a panel discussion featuring local activists and after the film director Laura E. Swanson will answer questions from the audience.

XUN PAN & DANA WEIDERHOLD ALLABAND

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 2018 | 7:30 P.M. | THE WARE CENTER

Tickets: $15, $5 Student

Dana Weiderhold Allaband, second principal of Lancaster Symphony Orchestra and Xun Pan, Director of Keyboard Studies at Millersville University will perform the most popular violin-piano repertoire through three centuries, including Beethoven's famous "Kreutzer" Sonata.

WARE CENTER
42 N Prince St, Lancaster

WINTER CENTER
60 W Cottage Ave, Millersville

Millersville
University

THE Arts
AT MILLERSVILLE

TICKETS & DETAILS
ARTSMU.COM
OR 717-871-7600