

Announcing the Department of Language and Culture Studies

Millersville University is pleased to announce that the Department of Foreign Languages in the College of Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences will be known, effective fall semester 2018, as the Department of Language and Culture Studies.

The new Department of Language and Culture Studies houses an undergraduate program in Language and Culture Studies with options in Language Studies, Culture Studies, or Certification, specializing in German, French, or Spanish. It also offers post-baccalaureate programs in French, German, and Spanish certification and a joint graduate program in Languages and Cultures with West Chester University.

Therefore, as of the fall 2018 semester, please adjust your records as appropriate to reflect the new name, Department of Language and Culture Studies.