

ELISE S. SHENK

Center for Health Education & Promotion
Millersville University

Division of Student Affairs and Enrollment Management

THE CENTER FOR HEALTH EDUCATION AND PROMOTION

we're looking for...

active students who want to serve as a Peer Educator Trainee to...

- learn how to educate your peers around pertinent topics
- work collaboratively with other student organizations
- plan and execute awareness events and campaigns around health issues impacting your peers apply today!

---

Go to www.millersville.edu/chep to complete the application.

Deadline October 5th

Questions? (717) 871-4141

BENEFITS OF BECOMING A PEER EDUCATOR

- learn to think critically, solve problems, and reflect on experiences
- gain self awareness of your own identity and goals
- develop strong professional skills and self-sufficiency, and lead a healthy lifestyle
- form relationships and work with others different than yourself
- connect academic and co-curricular knowledge and apply it to life circumstances
- increase cultural competency and social responsibility

To apply go to www.millersville.edu/chep to complete an application deadline 4:00pm October 5th, 2018