

Chancellor to Visit Millersville University

Dr. Daniel (Dan) Greenstein, the new Chancellor of the Pennsylvania State System of Higher Education (PASSHE), will be at Millersville University on Tuesday, September 18.

Dr. Greenstein began his journey as Chancellor earlier this month. He is starting his tour of all 14 universities in the State System with Millersville University. He wants to hear from everyone – students, alumni, faculty, staff and others. “I want to hear your stories, listen to your ideas and understand the challenges and obstacles that we face—that you face,” says Greenstein. “I want to know what makes us good, to know about the issues that keep us from becoming better, and to know how we can address those issues.”

There are two opportunities for the public to meet/interact with the Chancellor:

7–8 a.m. Cycling club “Ride with Dan” event will start and end right outside Lyle Hall.

12:05–1 p.m. Open Forum in Myers Auditorium, McComsey Hall

Greenstein previously led the Postsecondary Success strategy at the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation, where he worked with other higher education leaders across the country on initiatives designed to raise educational-attainment levels and to promote economic mobility, especially among low-income and minority students.
