

This Week in the Arts

HOLDEN ON

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 25 | 7 P.M. | THE WARE CENTER | Tickets: $7, $5 Student

Holden Layfield is a popular, 17 year-old small town athlete already fielding early scholarships. But Holden has a secret. Over the next two years, Holden fights to keep his mental illness hidden as he morphs from a beloved football player to a lost, self-medicating prophet. Based on a true story.

Followed by Q&A with director Tamlin Hall.

THE STRANGE CASE OF JEKYLL AND HYDE

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 26 | 7:30 P.M. | THE WARE CENTER | Tickets: $18, $5 Student

Actor Jeremy Kendall unravels the timeless tale of Dr. Jekyll's fall from grace at the hands of his devious protégé, Mr. Hyde in this one-man play that explores the dark influences of privilege and the lure of living a duplicitous life.

FAMILY FUN FEST: SCARE AT THE WARE!

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 27 | 2 & 7 P.M. | THE WARE CENTER | Tickets: $10, $5 Student

There's a haunted house in the Ware Center, and it has attracted a curious and unwary visitor. Poe, a raven of inimitable style and curiosity, explores each room of the house. What's inside? Something decrepit, something deceased, something that growls like a hideous beast, perhaps there's a tentacle, perhaps there's an eye to find out get your tickets, the time's drawing nigh!
