

Remembering the Strike!

On October 19, 2016, Millersville University faculty members joined together and went on strike. The three day Association of Pennsylvania State College and University Faculty (APSCUF) union strike was the first in the union's history.

On the second anniversary of the strike, visit the online exhibit created by students in Millersville's Archives & Special Collections

APSCUF Strike Exhibit