

When Race Determines Life or Death: Policing in America

Monday, October 22nd
6pm - 9pm
SMC 114 Reighard MPR

Cost: FREE, Advance Registration is Required
CEUs are being offered for a $25 fee
Go To <http://muticketsonline.com>,
Or Call (717) 871-7600
Please contact Dr. Rice with questions at Karen.Rice@millersville.edu or (717)871-5297

Presented by: Luther Tyus, MSW Student, Former Police Officer

Police Officers' perception of race could determine whether a perpetrator lives or dies. Speaking from experience, former Officer Luther Tyus speaks on what he did when he was faced with the choice to use lethal force or not.

Brought to you by:
Millersville University's School of Social Work's Learning Institute

"Advancing Global Social Justice and Human Rights"

Millersville University
SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK
BASW • MSW • DSW