

Millersville University Salutes our Campus Community Veterans

In recognition of Veterans Day 2018, it is an honor to show our gratitude to members of our university community who have served in the United States military. Below is a list of faculty, staff and students who shared their respective service branch. Thank you to all who have served for the safety and freedom of our nation.

Donna Bazow, Intercollegiate Athletics – United States Air Force

John Butts, University Police – United States Army

Anisha Hall, Student Affairs & Enrollment Management – United States Air Force

Brian Hambleton, Maintenance Operations – United States Navy

Michael Keen, University Police – United States Air Force

Lucie Lehr, College of Graduate Studies and Adult Learning – United States Air Force

Molly Longo, Undergraduate Applied Mathematics Student – United States Marine Corps

Patricia Maila, Undergraduate Social Work Student – Army National Guard

John McLarnon, History Department – United States Army

Michael Miller, Materials Control – United States Air Force

Timothy C. Miller, English Department – United States Army

Toby Myers, Dining & Conference Services – United States Army

Vincent Potter, Undergraduate Communications Student – Army National Guard

Lauren Weitzel, Purchasing & Campus Services – United States Air Force