

Good morning. Here are the State System News Highlights for December 5, 2018. This summary of news articles related to the State System universities is distributed weekly.

- To view the individual articles, click on the headlines below.
- To view past articles and real-time news highlights from Twitter, go to” www.passhe.edu/news.
- For regular updates on the State System Redesign, visit the website at: <http://systemredesign.passhe.edu/>

LHU announces initiatives geared toward stabilizing enrollment

Tuesday, December 4, 2018

Over the last several months, Lock Haven University has been analyzing enrollment projections in an effort to stabilize enrollment outcomes and make a college degree more accessible and affordable for all students.

The (Lock Haven) Express

'Mindhunter' casting directors speak to Cal U. students

Sunday, December 2, 2018

California University of Pennsylvania students learning about social deviance heard about the real-life characters that are studied and their TV portrayals during a “Mindhunter” event and casting call.

By Alyssa Choiniere, The (Washington, Pa.) Observer-Reporter

Zollinger leads Shippensburg to NCAA field hockey three-peat

Saturday, December 1, 2018

Coaching in her former backyard in front of family and friends, Tara Zollinger made it a happy homecoming by leading the Shippensburg field hockey team to a national three-peat.

Shippensburg won its third consecutive NCAA Division II championship with a 1-0 win in overtime over East Stroudsburg Saturday afternoon at Duquesne University’s Rooney Field.

By Bill Beckner Jr., The Tribune-Review

State university system has $14 million it doesn’t yet know what to do with

Thursday, November 29, 2018

Financial maneuvers involving $191 million borrowed during the 1990s has paid off for Pennsylvania’s system of 14 state universities in a big way. The State System of Higher Education has a fund of $14 million due to some savvy financial moves. Now system officials have to figure out what to do with the money.

By Jan Murphy, The (Harrisburg) Patriot-News