

Grief Support Session
For those Impacted by loss of Dr. Rita Smith Wade-EI

Dr. Rita Smith-Wade-EI, a professor of psychology and African-American Studies at Millersville University, died on Dec. 29. During her years at Millersville she impacted thousands of people.

Millersville University's Center for Counseling and Human Development and the Dr. Rita Smith-Wade-EI Intercultural Center are collaborating to offer a grief support session for students impacted by her death. The group will meet this Sunday evening, Jan. 27, from 7 - 8:30 p.m. in the Intercultural Center in the Student Memorial Center. It will be a chance for students to reflect on and share their thoughts, memories and feelings about Dr. Smith-Wade-EI and her impact on their lives.

The session will be facilitated by Drs. Daniel O'Neill and Kendra Saunders from counseling, along with Rev. Trip Beans from Campus Ministry.

All students are welcome.

Faculty and staff in need of support are encouraged to contact our State Employee Assistance Program - <http://www.passhe.edu/inside/HR/syshr/Pages/SEAP.aspx> at 1-800-692-7459
