

Race, Refugees, and Building a Culture of Welcome

Tuesday, February 19th
6pm - 9pm
SMC 114 Reighard
Multi-Purpose Room
Free to Attend

Presented by: Stephanie
Gromek
Development and Communications
Coordinator, Church World Services

Refugees arrive in Lancaster through the refugee resettlement program of Church World Services and integrate within the local way of living, while maintaining their own cultural norms. This presentation will explore further what welcome means across cultures, and how Lancaster has shown acceptance to all - regardless of race, religion, nationality, political opinions, or memberships of particular social groups.

"Advancing Global Social Justice and Human Rights"

Millersville University

SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK
BASW • MSW • DSW

