Open Textbook Initiative
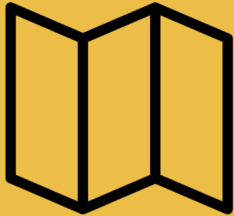

Supported by:

Millersville's OER Working Group
Center for Academic Excellence
Office of the Provost

Overview

- Spring 2019 the Open Textbook Initiative (OTI) seeks applicants for the inaugural cohort. The OTI will fund 15 faculty $1000 in professional development funds. Funds will be distributed after student measures of success have been submitted.

- The Open Textbook Initiative (OTI) works with Millersville University faculty to facilitate integration of open textbooks & to develop pedagogically effective practices. OTI makes the transition to Open Educational Resource (OER) textbooks easier by providing

    - Mentoring

    - A Collaborative Learning Community

    - $1,000 funding

Online application available at bit.ly/MillersvilleOTI

Applications due February 28th, 2019

Questions????

Additional information available:
https://www.millersville.edu/cae/open_textbook_initiative.php

Further questions about the Initiative can be directed to:
Drs. Amber Nicole Pfannenstiel and Daniel Albert.

Further questions about the Collaborative Learning Community can be directed to:
Drs. Stephanie Pennucci and Christopher Stieha.