Learn about Millersville's new Positive Energy Award Program, which provides funding for faculty, staff and students to complete projects that contribute positively to local communities using the Global Goals framework. The Global Goals are seventeen broad yet interdependent goals that reflect a collective ambition to work together as a global community to solve the grand challenges of our time, such as poverty, hunger and climate change. The Positive Energy Award Program seeks to accelerate local solutions to those challenges in Lancaster County through the work of Millersville University faculty, staff and students.
