

How I Learned to Love God and Her

Monday, March 18, 2019
Student Memorial Center, Room 114 (MPR)
6:00-8:00 pm
Free to Attend

Presented by Monica Williams

The First Ten Students to sign up will receive a FREE copy of her book

To pre-register email the Learning Institute learninginstitute@millersville.edu

Co-Sponsored by the Presidents Commission on Gender and Sexual Diversity

"Life for me was no walk in the park. I never would have imagined my life being what it is today but because I never gave up dreaming the dream, I was able to create a life of fulfillment out of a life of pain and hardship." Monica Williams, a native of Baltimore Maryland, the founder and visionary of Women Empowering Women to be Women of Truth has inspired women of all walks of life of the importance of telling your story.

"Advancing Global Social Justice and Human Rights"

Millersville University
SCHOOL OF SOCIAL WORK
BASW-MSW-DSW

