Academic Living-Learning Communities as a High Impact Practice: A Research- Based Model

Scott M. Helfrich, D.Ed., Director, Housing & Residential Programs, Steven Knepp, Associate Director, Housing & Residential Programs

April 30, 2019
Tuesday Common Hour (12:05 – 1:10 PM)
McNairy 502

This session will explore academic living-learning communities and how their implementation has become a high impact practice at colleges and universities. Research will be presented as well as best practices for successful implementation. Various case studies of successful LLCs from around the U.S. will be illustrated along with our current efforts at Millersville University.

NOTE: Faculty attendees will receive a free copy of the book Living-Learning Communities That Work: A Research-Based Model for Design, Delivery, and Assessment (2018).
