

WHAT FACULTY SHOULD KNOW FOR

Ramadan

May 5 - June 4

- Ramadan is the Muslim month of fasting. Practicing Muslim students will be fasting from dawn until dusk.
- Fasting means no food and no water.
- Ramadan often consists of prayers that go late into the night.
- Some students may stay up past midnight, and wakeup at 3:30/4 am to eat before dawn.

Practicing students may be hungry, tired, and dehydrated, especially if they are in your class late in the afternoon
