6th Annual Global Well-Being and Social Change Conference

Social Justice: Valuing Difference, Pursuing Equity, and Finding Space for Solidarity

April 24-26, 2019

Millersville University - Student Memorial Center

Registration is open! Please register here.

To learn more about the conference and to view the conference schedule please click here.

For more information, contact Dr. Karen Rice at karen.rice@millersville.edu

Documentary Screening: “Teach Us All”
Discussion led by: Dr. Tiffany Wright

Wednesday, April 24, 2019
6:00 pm - 8:30 pm
Student Memorial Center, Multipurpose Room

Keynote Speaker: Dr. Menah Pratt-Clark, JD

Courageous Leadership: Engagement, Equity, and Empowerment

Thursday, April 25, 2019
9:30 am - 10:30 am
Student Memorial Center, Multipurpose Room

Plenary Speaker: Lancaster Stands Up

Standing Up: How Everyday People are Making Change from Below

Friday, April 26, 2019
11:30 am - 1:30 pm
Student Memorial Center, Multipurpose Room

An Example of Some of the Presentations at this Year's Conference:

- Tending to the Process: Facilitating Interactions in Multiracial and Dominant White Spaces
- Intergroup Dialogue: A Tool to Promote and Foster Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion
- Beyond Academics: Exploring the Food, Housing, and Wellbeing needs of College Students
- Why Students with Intellectual Disability Must Belong to Gain the Good Life
- Social and Economic Justice for Refugees: Social Entrepreneurship as a Viable Alternative
- A Closer Look: PA Sentencing Laws and the Trauma Effects on the Family

Attendance is Free!

Registration fees include: attendance at keynote, plenary, and conference sessions, including all conference materials; documentary screening; morning and afternoon refreshments; luncheon on Friday during plenary session; parking; CEU and ACT 48 credits available over the two-and-a-half day conference