

University Research Newsletter

On behalf of the Provost and the Division of Academic Affairs, the University Honors College is pleased to present the spring 2019 edition of The University Research Newsletter, <https://www.millersville.edu/honorscollege/files/research-news/millersville-university-research-newsletter-spring-2019.pdf>, a semi-annual publication that recognizes the importance of research and scholarly and creative activity at Millersville University.

Student writers and editors under the direction of Dr. Elizabeth A. Thyrum produce this newsletter, which is shared with the campus and community each fall and spring semester of the academic year.
