Sen. Judy Schwank: Moving state universities in the right direction

Friday, July 26, 2019

Almost every day I run into someone who is a graduate of one of our 14 universities in the Pennsylvania State System of Education, or PASSHE. I’m always happy when I do because it means the system is working exactly as it’s intended. These schools are the launching pad for legions of Pennsylvania students on the road to success, and it’s fueling the economic engine of the commonwealth.
