IT Session - Closed Captioning: The Benefits for All Students

Matthew Fox, Instructional Designer, Online Programs

October 29, 2019
Tuesday Common Hour (12:05 – 1:10 PM)
McNairy 502

Research continues to confirm the power of video content to impact student learning. Beyond meeting accessibility needs, closed captioned video can allow all students to watch anytime, anywhere and even increase viewer focus. In this session we will explore how to develop a script, record and share a video from our MU Video platform, and attach closed captions to that video to promote student success.
