

Graduate Journal Deadline for Submissions: October 22, 2019

Dear Graduate Faculty,

Please announce to your graduate students:
.....

Invitation for Graduate Student to Publish in MUsings: The Graduate Journal

Graduate students at Millersville University are invited to publish their scholarly and creative work in MUsings: The Graduate Journal for Spring 2020.

MUsings: The Graduate Journal accepts work that deals with a broad range of topics. For example, graduate students may submit research reports, reflections on international studies projects, personal essays on experiential learning, papers about pedagogy, literary and film criticism, or essays on cultural theory.

The Graduate Journal also seeks creative nonfiction, short stories, flash fiction, poetry, multi-genre writing, and visual art. Innovative, intense scholarship and daring aesthetic efforts will be considered.

Graduate students are encouraged to update their favorite graduate projects to be published in The Graduate Journal for Spring 2020 issue.

Submission deadline: Tuesday, October 22, 2019

Submit your work HERE.

Submit more than one research paper, prose piece, or personal essay, increasing the chances of publication while providing the Graduate Editors with more choices for content.

Submit finished articles, rather than works-in-progress.

Submission guidelines: Up to two prose submissions (scholarly or creative) less than 10,000 words in length. Submit up to five poems or visual works or art using the form below.

MUsings: The Graduate Journal link to submission form

Contact: Prof. Joyce Anderson, (717) 871-7294, English Department