

Millersville University Salutes our Campus Community Veterans

In recognition of Veterans Day 2019, it is an honor to show our gratitude to members of our university community who have served in the United States military. Below is a list of faculty, staff and students who shared their respective service branch. Thank you to all who have served for the safety and freedom of our nation.

Donna Bazow, Intercollegiate Athletics – United States Air Force

Richard Joseph Behun, Psychology Department – United States Army

John Butts, University Police – United States Army

Alex DeCaria, Earth Sciences – United States Navy

Brian Hambleton, Maintenance Operations – United States Navy

Kelly Hood, Student – United States Navy

Lucie Lehr, College of Graduate Studies and Adult Learning – United States Air Force

Patricia Maila, Undergraduate Social Work Student – Army National Guard

John McLarnon, History Department – United States Army

Michael Miller, Materials Control – United States Air Force

Timothy C. Miller, English Department – United States Army

Toby Myers, Dining & Conference Services – United States Army

Millersville University Salutes our Campus Community Veterans

Veterans with a military ID may receive the following discounts on campus:

- Dining Services – Faculty, staff and students presenting a military ID will receive on Monday, November 11, 2019:
  - ❖ 10% off cash and credit card dining purchases at all retail locations (excluding Saxbys) on campus. (Declining Balance and Marauder Gold purchases are not applicable.)
  - ❖ A free 12 oz. smoothie at the Anchor in Gordinier Hall.
  - ❖ A free regular coffee or fountain beverage will also be available to those guests.
- Saxbys - A free 12-ounce pour of Liquid Courage coffee on Monday, November 11, 2019.
- University Store - Visitors of the Millersville University Store who present a military ID will receive a 10% discount on purchases of MU clothing and imprinted giftware during the period November 11 – 15, 2019.