America's National Parks

Sunday, September 13- Tuesday, September 22, 2020

Experience the wonders of the West through its best-known national parks and gold-mining towns on this colorful vacation. Stay two nights inside Yellowstone National Park, where you'll view the Grand Canyon of Yellowstone and stand in awe as you hear the roar of the water and view the glorious falls of Yellowstone's impressive Lower Falls, almost twice as high as Niagara Falls. Witness Old Faithful as it explodes into the air and admire the herds of bison, elk, and other wildlife as you explore the park. Similarly, in Grand Teton National Park, enjoy beautiful glacier-fed Jenny Lake and the rugged mountains—a dramatic sight indeed.

Mount Rushmore offers the astounding monument of four US Presidents as well as spectacular scenery and wildlife, including Rocky Mountain goat, mule deer, and bison. Also visit Crazy Horse Memorial, built in honor of the Lakota Chief and Little Bighorn Battlefield National Monument, commemorating the famous battle where Custer was defeated by the Lakota, Cheyenne, and Arapaho warriors. Drive through Black Hills National Forest with its timbered mountains, rugged rock formations, canyons, grasslands, streams, and lakes. On this National Parks tour, Globus has included some out-of-the-ordinary experiences. Globus has also arranged a chuck wagon cookout and Wild West show in Jackson. All of this and more—including time in Jackson—await you on this marvelous vacation through some of the West's national parks.

This 10-day tour includes special-access to America's National Parks, accommodations and group meals. Throughout the tour, you will be accompanied by a Tour Director who knows the ins and outs of the parks—its history, secrets, and unique cultures.
