Brown Bag Session: Kurzweil 3000- Assistive Technology for Reading, Studying and Writing

Julianne Browne, Office of Learning Services

February 6, 2020
Thursday Common Hour
(12:05 – 1:10 PM)
McNairy 502

Learn how Kurzweil 3000 helps students who can benefit from assistive technology. Kurzweil is an excellent tool for students with learning disabilities or attention issues. It also helps students who are ELL, athletes, veterans and non-traditional students. Kurzweil reads aloud text and web pages, supports note taking and creating study tools from text, and provides speech-to-text and organizers for writing support.
